Directions (1-10): Read the given passage carefully and attempt the questions that follow and shade the appropriate answer in the space provided for it on the OMR answer sheet.

It is an old saying that knowledge is power. Education is an instrument which imparts knowledge and, therefore, indirectly controls power. Therefore, ever since the dawn of our civilization, persons in power have always tried to supervise or control education. It has been handmaid of the ruling class. During the Christian era, the ecclesiastics controlled the institution of education and diffused among the people the gospel of the Bible and religious teachings. These gospels and teachings were no other than a philosophy for the maintenance of the existing society. It taught the poor man to be meek and to earn his bread with the sweat of his brow, while the priests and the landlords lived in luxury and fought duels for the slightest offence. During the Renaissance, education passed more from the clutches of the priest into the hands of the prince. In other words, it became more secular. Under the control of the monarch, education began to devise and preach the infallibility of its masters, the monarch or king. It also invented and supported fantastic theories like "The Divine Right Theory" and that the king can do no wrong, etc. With the advent of the industrial revolution, education took a different turn and had to please the new masters. It now no longer remained the privilege of the baron class, but was thrown open to the new rich merchant class of the society. The philosophy which was in vogue during this period was that of "Laissez faire" restricting the function of the State to a mere keeping of laws and order while on the other hand, in practice the law of the jungle prevailed in the form of free competition and the survival of the fittest.

Section-E

LEGAL APTITUDE

Directions (151-200): This section consists of fifty (50) questions. Each question consists of legal propositions/principles (hereinafter referred to as 'principle') and facts. These principles have to be applied to the given facts to arrive at the most reasonable conclusion. Such principles may or may not be true in the real sense, yet you have to conclusively assume them to be true for the purposes of this section. In other words, in answering the following questions, you must not rely on any principles except the principles that are given herein below for every question. Further you must not assume any facts other than those stated in the question. The objective of this section is to test your interest towards study of law, research aptitude and problem solving ability even if the "most reasonable conclusion" arrived at may be unacceptable for any other reason. It is not the objective of this section to test your knowledge of law.

151. PRINCIPLE: When an offer is accepted by a person to whom it is made, it becomes a promise. But this promise will become legally binding only when the acceptance of the offer is unconditional.

FACTS: Ram makes an offer to sell his house to Shyam for Rs. 50 lacs. Shyam accepts this offer but wants to pay the price of the house in five quarterly instalments. Ram does not agree to it. Thereafter Shyam agrees to pay the price of the house in the way as originally desired by Ram. But Ram does not reply to it. Can Shyam compel Ram to sell his house to him?

- (a) Shyam can compel Ram to sell his house because Shyam ultimately agrees to pay the price as originally desired by Ram.
- (b) Shyam can compel Ram to sell his house because Shyam in the first instance substantially complied with the desire of Ram.
- (c) Shyam can compel Ram to sell his house because Ram's offer does not exclude the payment of price in installments.
- (d) Shyam cannot compel Ram to sell his house because Shyam imposes a new condition about payment of price of the house while accepting the offer which is not ultimately accepted by Ram.

152. PRINCIPLE: Generally an agreement without consideration is not valid. Therefore, in order to make a valid agreement, some consideration which may have some value in the eyes of law, is essentially required.

FACTS: William has an old car of which he makes seldom use. He voluntarily enters into an agreement with Smith to sell this car for rupees ten thousand. Thereafter one Anson approaches William and offers to buy that car for rupees one lac as the car was one which Anson has been searching for long. Now William wants to cancel his agreement with Smith and refuses to deliver the car to him saying that consideration (price) for the car promised by Smith is negligible and, therefore, agreement with him cannot be said to be valid one.

- (a) William can cancel his agreement with Smith as the consideration involved in that is really inadequate
- (b) William cannot cancel his agreement with Smith as the sale of car for rupees ten thousand was voluntary and this price has some value in the eyes of law.
- (c) William can cancel his agreement with Smith as he was ignorant about the value/price of the car for which it could be sold.
- (d) William can cancel his Agreement with Smith as he is entitled to get full market value/price of his car.

153. PRINCIPLE: In order to be eligible to appear in the semester examination, a student is required to attend, under all circumstances, at least 70% of the total classes held in that semester as per University rules.

FACTS: Anand, an economically poor but a very brilliant student of LL.B. final semester, while going to his University by cycle received some leg injuries in road accident. Consequently Anand could not attend his classes for one week as he was advised rest by his doctor for that period. Due to this absence from the University, Anand failed to have 70% attendance essential to appear in the examination and, therefore, he was debarred from appearing in the examination by the University authorities. Anand challenges this decision in the court of law.

- (a) Anand will succeed in the court of law as the accident was beyond his control
- (b) Anand will definitely get favour of the court on humanitarian ground as he comes from a economically poor family and may not afford to take readmission
- (c) Anand will not succeed as he could very easily fulfil eligibility criteria for appearing in the examination by being reasonably regular in the class throughout the semester
- (d) Anand will succeed as requirement of 70% attendance may be declared arbitrary and, therefore, unreasonable by the court of law.

154. PRINCIPLE: A seller of goods cannot transfer better rights than he himself possesses in the goods sold to the buyer.

FACTS: Komal leaves his watch by mistake on a seat in the park, Sonal finds that watch and immediately sells the same for good price to Monal who without inquiring whether Sonal is its owner or not. Komal later on claims that watch from Monal. Decide whether Komal can succeed.

- (a) Komal cannot succeed as Monal has paid good price of the watch
- (b) Komal cannot succeed as Monal is unaware of the fact that Sonal is not its owner
- (c) Komal cannot succeed as it was his carelessness and nothing else which enabled Sonal to sell the watch to Monal
- (d) Komal cannot succeed as Sonal is merely finder of the watch and, therefore, cannot transfer ownership rights thereon to Monal.

155. PRINCIPLE: All citizens shall have the fundamental right to carry on any occupation, trade or business. but reasonable restrictions on the exercise of such rights can be imposed by law in the interest of the general public.

FACTS: A large number of persons had been carrying on the business of dyeing and printing in Rajkot area for the last 25 years providing employment to about 30,000 families. From these business places untreated dirty water was being discharged on the roads thereby causing damage to the public health. A notice, therefore, was given to close this business till necessary measures to protect public health as provided under the environment statutes were taken by those businessmen.

- (a) Notice cannot be justified as it will cause loss of employment to 30,000 families.
- (b) Notice cannot be justified as it amounts to violation of the fundamental right of the persons who have been carrying on the business for the last 25 years.

(c) The notice cannot be justified on the ground of damage to public health as the persons in that area have been voluntarily residing for long and have become used to that environment.

(d) The notice can be justified as the right to business is not absolute and reasonable restriction can be imposed by law in the interest of the public.

156. PRINCIPLE: A contract cannot be enforced by or against a person who is not a party to it. However, where some benefit is conferred on third party by the contract itself, there third party can be allowed to enforce that contract to get such benefit.

FACTS: Dinesh is liable to pay Rs.50,000 to Suresh. In order to discharge this liability Dinesh enters into a contract with Ramesh by which Dinesh sells his car to Ramesh for Rs.1 lac. Ramesh takes the delivery of the car and promises/assures to pay its price at the earliest. Dinesh separately informs Suresh about this contract for his satisfaction. Ramesh fails to pay the car's price. Suresh wants to join Dinesh in filing suit against Ramesh for the recovery of price of the car. Whether Suresh is entitled to do so?

(a) Suresh is entitled to do so because the contract was made for his benefit.

(b) Suresh is entitled to do so because Dinesh is liable to him and discharge of this liability depends upon the payment of the price of the car by Ramesh.

(c) Suresh is not entitled to do so because liability of Dinesh does not depend upon any assurance of Ramesh.

(d) Suresh is not entitled to do so because he is not a party to the contract between Dinesh and Ramesh.

157. PRINCIPLE: If a contract is made by post between two persons living in two different cities, then the contract is said to be complete as soon as the letter of acceptance is properly posted and the place of completion of the contract is that city where acceptance is posted. It is worth mentioning here that in every contract there is always an offer from one party and the acceptance of the offer from the other party.

FACTS: Sani, a resident of Patna, gives an offer by post to sell his house for Rs. 25 lacs to Hani, a resident of Allahabad. This offer letter is posted on 1st January, 2013 from Patna and reaches Allahabad on 7th January, 2013. Hani accepts this offer and posts the letter of acceptance on 8th January, 2013 from Allahabad which reaches Patna on 16th January, 2013. But Sani presuming that Hani is not interested in accepting his offer, sells his house to Gani at same price on 15th of January, 2013. Hani files a suit against Sani for the breach of contract in the competent court of Allahabad. Whether Hani will succeed?

(a) Hani cannot succeed as Sani cannot be compelled by law to wait for the answer from Hani for an indefinite period of time.

(b) Hani cannot succeed as he could use some other effective and speedy mode for communicating his acceptance in minimum possible time.

(c) Hani can succeed as he properly posted the letter of acceptance and the delay was beyond his control.

(d) Hani can succeed as contract became complete in the eyes of law on the date of posting the letter of acceptance.

158. PRINCIPLE: He, who goes to the court of law to seek justice, must come with clean hands.

FACTS: P enters into a contract with S under which S has to construct a house for P and has to complete the same within one year from the date of the contract. This contract includes two very important terms. According to first term if there is price hike of the materials to be used in the construction, then the escalation charges at a particular rate shall be payable by P to S. According to second term if the construction of the house is not completed within the period prescribed for it, then S will have to pay penalty at a particular rate to P. Before the completion of the construction work the workers of S go on strike and strike continues up to three months even after the expiry of one year. After that period workers return and the construction work again starts. During the last three months period of strike there was a considerable rise, in the price of the building material. S claimed escalation cost from P. P did not agree to it. S filed a suit in the court of law either to order the payment of the price of the building material on the basis of escalated price or to allow him to stop their work without incurring any penal liability towards P.

(a) S will succeed as strike by his workers was unexpected and beyond his control.

(b) S can succeed as there is an escalation clause in the contract.

(c) S cannot succeed as he has failed to complete the construction work in time and strike cannot be treated as a valid excuse for delay in work.

(d) S can succeed if he pays penalty to P for delay.

159. PRINCIPLE: If the object of an agreement is or becomes unlawful or immoral or opposed to public policy in the eyes of law, then the courts will not enforce such agreements. Law generally prohibits Child labour.

FACTS: P enters into an agreement with T by which P has to let his house to T for two years and T has to pay Rs. 20,000.00 per month to P as rent. T starts a child care centre in that house. But after some time in order to earn some money for the maintenance of the centre, T starts sending the children of the centre on rotation basis to work for four hours a day in some nearby chemical and hazardous factories. When P comes to know about this new development, he asks T either to stop the children from working in factories or to leave his house immediately. T neither agrees to leave the house nor to stop the children from working in the factories. P files a suit in the court of law for appropriate relief/action.

FACTS: Hari is carrying on a chemical and fertilizer industry near a bank of a river. In order to prevent and control any kind of harm to the environment, suitable waste treatment and disposal plants were installed in the factory.
